

Date, Time, and Staff initials	Setting events (anything that might make the behaviour more likely to happen – tired, hungry, new place, etc)	A-antecedent (what was happening immediately before the behaviour – factual only i.e. X was in the front room watching TV and I asked her to come for dinner)	B-behaviour (what does the behaviour look like and how long did it last for)	C-consequence (what happened immediately after the behaviour)